DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The building is one bay wide and one story high, has a flat roof and a stone foundation wall. The building walls are laid in common bond. The single bay is defined between two narrow walls each of which carry double brick piers with stone bases and carved stone caps. Flat plate glass double doors and a flat single light transom are encased in a wood surround capped with a decorative pediment. A flat plate glass window with wood sill and wood lintel flank either side of the entrance. Either window and the door surround are surmounted by a flat plate glass transom. The aforementioned elements share common and contiguous painted wood mullions. A frieze band carrying the bank name surmounts these elements. A stone cornice and dentils surmounts the building facade. A shallow stone parapet wall with balustrade surmounts the cornice.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This bank was constructed in the first quarter of the twentieth century. It is one of the latter commercial style buildings along Pennsylvania Avenue. Many of the other commercial uses on the avenue are nineteenth century buildings with twentieth century store fronts. The 1800 block of Pennsylvania Avenue still has a great deal of commercial activity.
